Digital Technology in The Early Years

Free online learning for teachers, educators & families

Guiding principles and practices for exploring technology with young children

Embracing Digital Technology

Guiding principles and practices for exploring technology with young children

Myth Busting

Exploring ethics, myths and best practice

Indigenous Perspectives and Digital Technology

Enriching experiences by adopting Indigenous approaches to learning

Engaging Children with Technology

Observing children's interactions with technology

Pause & Reflect

Additional Resources at the click of a mouse

Reviewing Learning

Reflecting on opportunities & ideas for practice

sandbox learning through play

Artwork by Jenna Oldaker

The Sandbox Project is an initiative funded by the Victorian Government in partnership with Federation University and Y Ballarat.

Come and explore the Sandbox

A truly unique learning environment informing early childhood education.

sandbox.org.au